Vic Henley - A true comedy veteran, Alabama-born Vic Henley has done it all. Co-author of a national bestselling book with fellow comedian Jeff Foxworthy, Vic has appeared on HBO, CBS, NBC, FOX, MTV, BRAVO, CMT and just about every other stand up comedy show on television. He was a VH-1 VJ and has his own Comedy Central Presents half hour special as well as performances on The Late Show with David Letterman and The Tonight Show with Jay Leno.

With an easy style that covers a variety of topics, Vic's material has been featured on nationally syndicated radio shows like "John Boy and Billy" as well as SIRIUS XM's Raw Dog and Blue Collar comedy channels.

Vic's innate ability to turn perfectly reasonable adults into guffawing idiots has made him a crowd favorite all over the world. Whether it's HBO's US Comedy Arts Festival in Aspen, Montreal's Just For Laughs Comedy Festival, or the granddaddy of them all-The Edinburgh Fringe Festival in Scotland, Henley has drawn rave reviews and packed houses. His success at Edinburgh led to a slew of BBC TV appearances on stand up and talk shows, some where he was the first American to perform.

Vic has also performed on over 500 college campuses receiving 8 "Comedian of the Year" nominations. His popularity in the Corporate and Association markets has landed him many high profile gigs including co-hosting an event with former President George H.W. Bush. In 2009 Vic combined his writing and performing skills in the Sacha Baron Cohen feature film, Bruno.

Eddie Brill is a well-respected and very funny stand-up comedian here in the USA and abroad. He has been a regular on the comedy scene in England since 1989. Eddie also works regularly in Australia, Ireland, Scotland, Canada, France, Holland and Hong Kong.

For the past eleven years and counting, has worked on the Late Show with David Letterman. He is the audience warm-up and Talent Coordinator for the comedians who appear on the show. He has taped more than 100 television shows in six different countries. He is also a 3-time MAC Award Winner (Manhattan Association of Cabaret and Clubs) for Best Male Stand-up Comic in NYC.

He has hosted and performed for hundreds of corporate events...including ESPN, Glaxo Welcome, Hyatt Hotels and BMC Software. He performed on some of the greatest stages in the world including The Shrine Auditorium and Radio City Music Hall. He has been the audience warm-up for many shows including the Dana Carvey Show, Madigan Men This is Your Life and for a short time...early episodes of Saved By The Bell. He has appeared in numerous films as an actor...most recently, 30 Years To Life with Tracy Morgan. He has used his voice talents in many animated series including Comedy Central's Dr Katz and ABC's Science Court.

Along with Norman Lear in 1978, he helped create one of the first ever college comedy writing departments in the country at Emerson College in Boston. He currently teaches a highly acclaimed stand-up comedy workshop worldwide that helps comics young and old take their comedy work to the next level.

Returning this year after 12 months secluded in the South of France.
